Description

net-telnet has no maintainer but some issue is available.
ref. [#8837][8837] [#8668][8668] [#8324][8324]

I propose to gemify net-telnet and extract to github for development with community base.

see. https://github.com/ruby/net-telnet

How are users who refuse to use proprietary websites or refuse the terms-of-service expected to contribute to this (and other extracted gems)?

I understood your opinion.

Is it OK to email patches directly to maintainers (perhaps Cc: ruby-core?). If so, can this be stated explicitly?

It's ok. If my proposal is accepted, I coordinate your concerns.
